Future FPC agenda items will be clear about the nature of the business to be transacted. Ensuing agenda items will be clearly attributed.II. Change item 5 of the present agenda to “proposed additional simulated shooting at Esk house” and include the description “Council to consider and decide on any action taken”. Finally, the item currently in the AOB to be removed. Motion I was seconded by JF and passed unanimously. Motion II was seconded by the Chair and passed unanimously. | |
| 5 | proposed additional simulated shooting at Esk house | A letter which was addressed to the council and numerous other local and national bodies was circulated in advance of the meeting. This letter was from several residents of Farndale and outlined their concerns regarding the proposed clay pigeon shoot business at Esk House. The author of the letter was invited to present their concerns which included, but was not limited to: risk to SSSI, lead shot contamination, raptor conservation, impact on other tourism, and the “peace and tranquillity” of the NYM. It was the view of this resident and all that signed the letter that “a commercial clay pigeon shoot is not appropriate in Farndale”. Council queried whether there are legislative instruments within the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 that could be | A letter should be sent to the NYMPA and natural England outlining the FPC’s opposition to the simulated clay shooting at Esk House – these letters should include an amended version of the letters sent to the council regarding the scheme. [Clerk] The Council should write to the organisation (Yorkshire Field sports) that is coordinating the scheme and express the council’s opposition. [Clerk] The Council is to draft Kevin Hollinrake’s office a letter which expresses the council’s opposition to then scheme within the context of the NYMNP. [Clerk] |
